

I.

II.

III.

IV.

OFFICE USE ONLY: CUSTOMER ACCOUNT

#60014-0140006301

HARRIS COUNTY ID 14 SERVICE AGREEMENT

threats to the public drinking water supply shall be eliminated at the service connection by the installation of an air-gap or reduced pressure-zone backflow prevention device. No cross-connection between the public drinking water supply and a private water system is permitted. These potential threats to the public drinking water supply shall be eliminated at the service connection by the installation of an air-gap or reduced pressure-zone backflow prevention device. No connection which allows water to be returned to the public drinking water supply is permitted. No pipe or pipe fitting which contains more that 0.25% lead may be used for the installation or repair of plumbing at any connection which provides water for human use. No solder of flux which contains more than 0.2% lead can be used for the installation or repair of plumbing at any connect which provides water for human use. Service Agreement: The following are the terms of the Service Agreement between the Water System and	*Sei	ice Address*City
Purpose: The Water system is responsible for protecting the drinking water supply from contamination or pollution which could result from improper plumbing practices. The purpose of this Service Agreement is to notify each customer of the plumbing restrictions which are in place to provide this protection. The utility enforces these restrictions to ensure the puble halth and waters. Each customer must sign this agreement before service will begin. In addition, when service to an existing connection has been suspended or terminated, the water system will not re-establish service unless it has a signe copy of this Service Agreement. Plumbing Restrictions: The following undesirable plumbing practices are prohibited by State regulations. No direct-connection between the public drinking water supply and a potential source of contamination is permitted. Pote threats to the public drinking water supply shall be eliminated at the service connection by the installation of an air-gap or reduced pressure-zone backflow prevention device. No cross-connection between the public drinking water supply and a private water system is permitted. These potential threats to the public drinking water supply shall be eliminated at the service connection by the installation of an air-gap or reduced pressure-zone backflow prevention device. No connection which allows water to be returned to the public drinking water supply is permitted. No pipe or pipe fitting which contains more that 0.25% lead may be used for the installation or repair of plumbing at any connection which provides water for human use. No solder of flux which contains more than 0.2% lead can be used for the installation or repair of plumbing at any connection which provides water for human use. Service Agreement: The following are the terms of the Service Agreement between the Water System and for human use. Service Agreement: The following are the terms of the Service Agreement between the Water System and for human use, the water System shall notify the custom	*Zip	Code*Mandatory field could result from improper plumbing practices. The purpose of this Service Agreement is to notify each customer of the plumbing restrictions which are in place to provide this protection. The utility enforces these restrictions to ensure the pub health and welfare. Each customer must sign this agreement before service will begin. In addition, when service to an existing connection has been suspended or terminated, the water system will not re-establish service unless it has a signe copy of this Service Agreement. Plumbing Restrictions: The following undesirable plumbing practices are prohibited by State regulations. No direct-connection between the public drinking water supply and a potential source of contamination is permitted. Pote threats to the public drinking water supply shall be eliminated at the service connection by the installation of an air-gap or reduced pressure-zone backflow prevention device. No cross-connection between the public drinking water supply and a private water system is permitted. These potential threats to the public drinking water supply shall be eliminated at the service connection by the installation of an air-gap or reduced pressure-zone backflow prevention device. No connection which allows water to be returned to the public drinking water supply is permitted. No pipe or pipe fitting which contains more that 0.25% lead may be used for the installation or repair of plumbing at any connection which provides water for human use. No solder of flux which contains more than 0.2% lead can be used for the installation or repair of plumbing at any connection which provides water for human use. Service Agreement: The following are the terms of the Service Agreement between the Water System and the property to be inspected for possible cross-connections, after any major changes to the priplumbing facilities or if any unacceptable plumbing practices exist. These inspections shall be conducted by the Water System's normal business hours. The customer shall allow their property to be	Retu	n to via Email: StartService@inframark.com Fax- 281-394-4530
No direct-connection between the public drinking water supply and a potential source of contamination is permitted. Pote threats to the public drinking water supply shall be eliminated at the service connection by the installation of an air-gap or reduced pressure-zone backflow prevention device. No cross-connection between the public drinking water supply and a private water system is permitted. These potential threats to the public drinking water supply shall be eliminated at the service connection by the installation of an air-gap or reduced pressure-zone backflow prevention device. No connection which allows water to be returned to the public drinking water supply is permitted. No pipe or pipe fitting which contains more that 0.25% lead may be used for the installation or repair of plumbing at any connection which provides water for human use. No solder of flux which contains more than 0.2% lead can be used for the installation or repair of plumbing at any connect which provides water for human use. Service Agreement: The following are the terms of the Service Agreement between the Water System and	cou plur hea exis	I result from improper plumbing practices. The purpose of this Service Agreement is to notify each customer of the bing restrictions which are in place to provide this protection. The utility enforces these restrictions to ensure the public hand welfare. Each customer must sign this agreement before service will begin. In addition, when service to an ing connection has been suspended or terminated, the water system will not re-establish service unless it has a sign
threats to the public drinking water supply shall be eliminated at the service connection by the installation of an air-gap or reduced pressure-zone backflow prevention device. No cross-connection between the public drinking water supply and a private water system is permitted. These potential threats to the public drinking water supply shall be eliminated at the service connection by the installation of an air-gap or reduced pressure-zone backflow prevention device. No connection which allows water to be returned to the public drinking water supply is permitted. No pipe or pipe fitting which contains more that 0.25% lead may be used for the installation or repair of plumbing at any connection which provides water for human use. No solder of flux which contains more than 0.2% lead can be used for the installation or repair of plumbing at any connect which provides water for human use. Service Agreement: The following are the terms of the Service Agreement between the Water System and	Plu	bing Restrictions: The following undesirable plumbing practices are prohibited by State regulations.
threats to the public drinking water supply shall be eliminated at the service connection by the installation of an air-gap or reduced pressure-zone backflow prevention device. No connection which allows water to be returned to the public drinking water supply is permitted. No pipe or pipe fitting which contains more that 0.25% lead may be used for the installation or repair of plumbing at any connection which provides water for human use. No solder of flux which contains more than 0.2% lead can be used for the installation or repair of plumbing at any connect which provides water for human use. Service Agreement: The following are the terms of the Service Agreement between the Water System and (the "Customer"). The Water System will maintain a copy of this Service Agreement as long as the customer and/or premises are connected the Water System. The customer shall allow their property to be inspected for possible cross-connections, after any major changes to the principlumbing facilities or if any unacceptable plumbing practices exist. These inspections shall be conducted by the Water Syor its designated agent prior to initiating service and periodically thereafter. The inspections shall be conducted during the Water System's normal business hours. The Water System shall notify the customer in writing of any cross-connection or other undesirable plumbing practice which has been identified during the initial inspection or periodic inspections. The customer shall, at their expense, properly install, test, and maintain any backflow prevention device required by the Waystem. Copies of all testing and maintenance records shall be provided to the Water System Customer understands and agrees that the district does not guarantee any specific quantity or pressure of water for any purpose whatsoever and that the District is not liable to customer for failure or refusal to furnish any particular amount or pressure of water to Customer at any time. Enforcement. If the customer fails to comply with the terms of th	thre	ts to the public drinking water supply shall be eliminated at the service connection by the installation of an air-gap or
No pipe or pipe fitting which contains more that 0.25% lead may be used for the installation or repair of plumbing at any connection which provides water for human use. No solder of flux which contains more than 0.2% lead can be used for the installation or repair of plumbing at any connect which provides water for human use. Service Agreement: The following are the terms of the Service Agreement between the Water System and (the "Customer"). The Water System will maintain a copy of this Service Agreement as long as the customer and/or premises are connected the Water System. The customer shall allow their property to be inspected for possible cross-connections, after any major changes to the prival plumbing facilities or if any unacceptable plumbing practices exist. These inspections shall be conducted by the Water System is normal business hours. The Water System's normal business hours. The Water System shall notify the customer in writing of any cross-connection or other undesirable plumbing practice which has been identified during the initial inspection or periodic inspections. The customer shall, at their expense, properly install, test, and maintain any backflow prevention device required by the W System. Copies of all testing and maintenance records shall be provided to the Water System Customer understands and agrees that the district does not guarantee any specific quantity or pressure of water for any purpose whatsoever and that the District is not liable to customer for failure or refusal to furnish any particular amount or pressure of water to Customer at any time. Enforcement. If the customer fails to comply with the terms of the Service Agreement, the Water System shall, at its optiterminate service or properly install, test, and maintain an appropriate backflow prevention device at the service connection Any expenses associated with the enforcement of this Service Agreement shall be billed to the customer.	thre	ts to the public drinking water supply shall be eliminated at the service connection by the installation of an air-gap or
No solder of flux which contains more than 0.2% lead can be used for the installation or repair of plumbing at any connect which provides water for human use. Service Agreement: The following are the terms of the Service Agreement between the Water System and	No	onnection which allows water to be returned to the public drinking water supply is permitted.
Service Agreement: The following are the terms of the Service Agreement between the Water System and(the "Customer"). The Water System will maintain a copy of this Service Agreement as long as the customer and/or premises are connected the Water System. The customer shall allow their property to be inspected for possible cross-connections, after any major changes to the prival plumbing facilities or if any unacceptable plumbing practices exist. These inspections shall be conducted by the Water Syor its designated agent prior to initiating service and periodically thereafter. The inspections shall be conducted during the Water System's normal business hours. The Water System shall notify the customer in writing of any cross-connection or other undesirable plumbing practice which has been identified during the initial inspection or periodic inspections. The customer shall immediately correct any undesirable plumbing practice on the premises. The customer shall, at their expense, properly install, test, and maintain any backflow prevention device required by the W System. Copies of all testing and maintenance records shall be provided to the Water System Customer understands and agrees that the district does not guarantee any specific quantity or pressure of water for any purpose whatsoever and that the District is not liable to customer for failure or refusal to furnish any particular amount or pressure of water to Customer at any time. Enforcement. If the customer fails to comply with the terms of the Service Agreement, the Water System shall, at its optiterminate service or properly install, test, and maintain an appropriate backflow prevention device at the service connection Any expenses associated with the enforcement of this Service Agreement shall be billed to the customer.
The Water System will maintain a copy of this Service Agreement as long as the customer and/or premises are connected the Water System. The customer shall allow their property to be inspected for possible cross-connections, after any major changes to the prival plumbing facilities or if any unacceptable plumbing practices exist. These inspections shall be conducted by the Water Syor its designated agent prior to initiating service and periodically thereafter. The inspections shall be conducted during the Water System's normal business hours. The Water System shall notify the customer in writing of any cross-connection or other undesirable plumbing practice which has been identified during the initial inspection or periodic inspections. The customer shall immediately correct any undesirable plumbing practice on the premises. The customer shall, at their expense, properly install, test, and maintain any backflow prevention device required by the W System. Copies of all testing and maintenance records shall be provided to the Water System Customer understands and agrees that the district does not guarantee any specific quantity or pressure of water for any purpose whatsoever and that the District is not liable to customer for failure or refusal to furnish any particular amount or pressure of water to Customer at any time. Enforcement. If the customer fails to comply with the terms of the Service Agreement, the Water System shall, at its optiterminate service or properly install, test, and maintain an appropriate backflow prevention device at the service connection Any expenses associated with the enforcement of this Service Agreement shall be billed to the customer.
The customer shall allow their property to be inspected for possible cross-connections, after any major changes to the priv plumbing facilities or if any unacceptable plumbing practices exist. These inspections shall be conducted by the Water Sy or its designated agent prior to initiating service and periodically thereafter. The inspections shall be conducted during the Water System's normal business hours. The Water System shall notify the customer in writing of any cross-connection or other undesirable plumbing practice which has been identified during the initial inspection or periodic inspections. The customer shall immediately correct any undesirable plumbing practice on the premises. The customer shall, at their expense, properly install, test, and maintain any backflow prevention device required by the Water System. Copies of all testing and maintenance records shall be provided to the Water System. Customer understands and agrees that the district does not guarantee any specific quantity or pressure of water for any purpose whatsoever and that the District is not liable to customer for failure or refusal to furnish any particular amount or pressure of water to Customer at any time. Enforcement. If the customer fails to comply with the terms of the Service Agreement, the Water System shall, at its optit terminate service or properly install, test, and maintain an appropriate backflow prevention device at the service connection Any expenses associated with the enforcement of this Service Agreement shall be billed to the customer. plumbing facilities or if any unacceptable plumbing practices exist. These inspections shall be conducted by the Water Sy or its designated agent prior to initiating service and periodically thereafter. The inspections shall be conducted during the Water System's normal business hours. The Water System shall notify the customer in writing of any cross-connection or other undesirable plumbing practice which has been identified during the initial inspection or periodic inspections. The customer shall immediately correct any undesirable plumbing practice on the premises. The customer shall, at their expense, properly install, test, and maintain any backflow prevention device required by the Waster. Copies of all testing and maintenance records shall be provided to the Water System. Customer understands and agrees that the district does not guarantee any specific quantity or pressure of water for any purpose whatsoever and that the District is not liable to customer for failure or refusal to furnish any particular amount or pressure of water to Customer at any time. Enforcement. If the customer fails to comply with the terms of the Service Agreement, the Water System shall, at its optiterminate service or properly install, test, and maintain an appropriate backflow prevention device at the service connection Any expenses associated with the enforcement of this Service Agreement shall be billed to the customer.
has been identified during the initial inspection or periodic inspections. The customer shall immediately correct any undesirable plumbing practice on the premises. The customer shall, at their expense, properly install, test, and maintain any backflow prevention device required by the W System. Copies of all testing and maintenance records shall be provided to the Water System Customer understands and agrees that the district does not guarantee any specific quantity or pressure of water for any purpose whatsoever and that the District is not liable to customer for failure or refusal to furnish any particular amount or pressure of water to Customer at any time. Enforcement. If the customer fails to comply with the terms of the Service Agreement, the Water System shall, at its optiterminate service or properly install, test, and maintain an appropriate backflow prevention device at the service connection Any expenses associated with the enforcement of this Service Agreement shall be billed to the customer.	plur or it	bing facilities or if any unacceptable plumbing practices exist. These inspections shall be conducted by the Water States designated agent prior to initiating service and periodically thereafter. The inspections shall be conducted during the
The customer shall, at their expense, properly install, test, and maintain any backflow prevention device required by the W System. Copies of all testing and maintenance records shall be provided to the Water System Customer understands and agrees that the district does not guarantee any specific quantity or pressure of water for any purpose whatsoever and that the District is not liable to customer for failure or refusal to furnish any particular amount or pressure of water to Customer at any time. Enforcement. If the customer fails to comply with the terms of the Service Agreement, the Water System shall, at its optiterminate service or properly install, test, and maintain an appropriate backflow prevention device at the service connection. Any expenses associated with the enforcement of this Service Agreement shall be billed to the customer.
System. Copies of all testing and maintenance records shall be provided to the Water System Customer understands and agrees that the district does not guarantee any specific quantity or pressure of water for any purpose whatsoever and that the District is not liable to customer for failure or refusal to furnish any particular amount or pressure of water to Customer at any time. Enforcement. If the customer fails to comply with the terms of the Service Agreement, the Water System shall, at its optiterminate service or properly install, test, and maintain an appropriate backflow prevention device at the service connection. Any expenses associated with the enforcement of this Service Agreement shall be billed to the customer.	The	customer shall immediately correct any undesirable plumbing practice on the premises.
purpose whatsoever and that the District is not liable to customer for failure or refusal to furnish any particular amount or pressure of water to Customer at any time. Enforcement. If the customer fails to comply with the terms of the Service Agreement, the Water System shall, at its optiterminate service or properly install, test, and maintain an appropriate backflow prevention device at the service connection. Any expenses associated with the enforcement of this Service Agreement shall be billed to the customer.
terminate service or properly install, test, and maintain an appropriate backflow prevention device at the service connection. Any expenses associated with the enforcement of this Service Agreement shall be billed to the customer. Int Name:	pur	ose whatsoever and that the District is not liable to customer for failure or refusal to furnish any particular amount or tern	nate service or properly install, test, and maintain an appropriate backflow prevention device at the service connection
	int No
		IC.